You're getting the best the Okavango Delta has to offer when you explore Moremi Game Reserve. There's wildlife everywhere in these parts, with hippos and crocs in the lakes and river channels, and elephants, big cats, and more on dry land. You even have a chance to see the Big Five. There are also lots of ways to explore, whether out on the water or in a vehicle on dry land.

Okavango Delta (Day 3)

When you visit the Okavango Delta, you can look forward to a wonderful wildlife experience against a watery backdrop of islands and river channels. Expect elephants, giraffes, zebras, crocs, hippos and buffaloes, and possibly big cats too.

Traveling in a Mokoro

Day 4, 5 & 6

Khwai Concession

Part of Moremi Game Reserve, the Khwai Concession sees fewer crowds than some other areas of the reserve, but it's just as good for seeing wildlife. Leopards, lions and elephants are among the wildlife possibilities, while seeing giraffes and zebras is almost certain. The combination of woodlands and open grasslands is perfect for spotting wildlife, and the Khwai River is excellent too.
